Jerry, Please weigh in here..... I thought you mentioned to me that Kathy suggested we post the methods so Ft Meade or others could just refer any future inquiries about methods there. Thanks, den.

The attached spread sheet has the analytical methods noted. Most of them are methods that are easily referenced on the internet and other sources. However, the methods noted for SVOCs - OLC03.2/3520C are more obscure.

Cindy Metzger is the right person to provide this information.
